FALL TERM.

Evelyn Whittier,	Adolf G. Von Dreden,
Fred Whittier,	Ethel J. Eastman,
Ada Annis,	Emma H. Von Dred-
Harry Rudner,	en,
Bernard D. Eastman,	Mary D. MacInnis,

We are of the opinion that our school district has been favored the past year with an unusually competent, experienced and practical number of teachers.

We had two beginners without special training yet they acquitted themselves very creditably.

One of our schools was closed in the spring after less than five weeks session on account of diphtheria and for local reasons the fall term was not as long as the board intended. It is proposed that this school will have extra weeks added the coming year.

The fall term in the Morgan school was shortened by reason of the teacher's illness. We hope to make good this shortage in the early spring.

We have had complaints made by parents against teachers from the reports of their young children. We advise all parents to listen attentively to all complaints, but not form nor express an opinion against the teacher without making a full investigation. Please do not condemn or criticise any teacher in presence of pupils. If any parent or guardian thinks a teacher is not attending to duty properly, quietly notify the school board, preferably in writing giving details or specifications.

After a full and careful examination by the board in nine cases out of ten any error or omission will be remedied. We believe our teachers have always been ready to correct any mistake and do everything reasonable for the benefit of each and all pupils.

A teacher cannot keep the school in first class condition without the punctual attendance of all.

Parents or guardians will please co-operate with the several teachers and insist on their children's daily attendance without tardiness except in unavoidable cases.

We ask all interested in our children's education to carefully look for and examine the special legislation, now proposed to be enacted by law during the present session of our State legislature.

Finally come to school meeting on Thursday, March 11, at 1 o'clock, in the afternoon and assist the board in considering the school problem.

Respectfully submitted,

CHAS. McDANIEL,
NELSON H. MORGAN,
IDA E. BAILEY,

February 1909,

School Board.
